

I am very upset that you are going to change all the regulations regarding our public airwaves. The fewer places that own and run our media, the more likely that we will not get comprehensive, varied coverage. We will begin getting a single message that doesn't fit in with our concept of democracy.